Third Sunday in Ordinary Time January 21, 2024

Gospel Mark 1:14-20

1. Must you be called as a missionary and go, for instance, to Africa in order to respond to the Gospel? Or could you be called to bring the Good News, whether you are fisherman, woman, or theologian—in whatever you do? Which way does Jesus call you?

2. According to Pope Francis's homily below, does God look for you where you are, in your ordinary life? Can your ordinary life be sacred?

John [the Baptist] received people in the desert, where only those able to leave their homes could go. Jesus, on the other hand, speaks of God in the heart of society, to everyone, wherever they find themselves. He does not speak at fixed times or places, but “walking along the shore,” to fishermen who were “casting their nets” (v. 16). He speaks to people in the most ordinary times and places. ...

The disciples would never forget the words they heard that day on the shore of the lake, ...“Follow me, I will make you become fishers of men.” (v. 17 ... Jesus spoke to them in terms of their own livelihood: “You are fishermen, and you will become fishers of men.” Struck by those words, they come to realize that lowering their nets for fish was too little, whereas putting out into the deep in response to the word of Jesus was the secret of true joy.

The Lord does the same with us: he looks for us where we are, he loves us as we are, and he patiently walks by our side. As he did with those fishermen, he waits for us on the shore of our life. With his word, he wants to change us, to invite us to live fuller lives and to put out into the deep together with him.

COME FOLLOW ME. I WILL MAKE YOU FISHERS OF MEN.

Once again we see the theme of VOCATION. When Jesus invites the disciples to follow him, he doesn't say where they are going or what they will be doing, other than being "fishers of men." You might say Jesus is a Help Wanted sign today but without many details of what that job entails. This is why it's so important to trust and have faith in our Lord. The disciples are being called because Jesus knows them better than they know themselves. Jesus knows these are the guys that can help him build his church. We pray today that we too can collaborate with Jesus as we help build the Kingdom of God on earth.

SIGANME. LOS HARE PESCADORES

DE HOMBRES.

Una vez mas vemos el tema de VOCACIÓN. Cuando Jesús invita a sus discípulos a seguirlos no les dice a donde van o que van hacer aparte de ser "Pescadores de hombres." Podríamos decir que Jesús es como un letrado solicitando trabajadores pero sin detalles de que consiste el trabajo. Por eso es importante confiar y tener fé en nuestro Señor. Los discípulos son llamados porque Jesús los conoce mejor que ellos mismos. Jesús sabe que esos son los compañeros que lo ayudaran a construir si iglesia. Pidamos que colaboremos con el Señor para que ayudemos a construir el Reino de Dios en la tierra.
